

PDL UPDATE:

Temporary Turnaround Time Delay

SARS CoV-2 Spike Antibody, Semi-Quantitative Test

July 15, 2021

WHAT HAS OCCURRED

Pacific Diagnostic Laboratories (PDL) is experiencing delays with SARS CoV-2 Spike Antibody, Semi-Quantitative Test due to supply availability from our vendor.

OUTSTANDING TEST RESULTS

If you have any outstanding tests:

We have routed specimens waiting to be tested to our referral lab to avoid further turnaround time delays.

Results should be back in 24-48 hours.

EXPECTED RESOLUTION

We are expecting the supplies to arrive the week of July 19, 2021, and will resume in-house testing as soon as possible.

Our apologies for the inconvenience this temporary turnaround time delay may cause.
